KEEPING ARTS ALIVE IN SOUTH FLORIDA

---

Dear CIA Members,

I'm honored to have been selected as President of CIA for the upcoming year 2022-2023. I along with the Board of Directors have been meeting to create a spectacular upcoming year for your enjoyment.

The following is a glimpse of events we have planned thus far:

July 20th, 2022

"Art Of Hollywood Back Drop" exhibit led by a docent at the Boca Raton Museum, and a delicious 3 course Italian Meal created just for you by the chefs at Cosa Duci. Bus Transportation included.

September 20th, 2022

Join us for a private tour of Sandi Simon's incredible "African Art Collection" at the Vi, along with cocktails and appetizers.

October 19th, 2022

Our opening luncheon will take place at "Miami Shores Country Club", where we will be entertained with music from one of our grantees, and a spectacular Fashion Show featuring clothes from Lisa Krutchik Jaffe's store "Statements. "

November 8th, 2022

An evening of fun, music, bingo, and food, at "Anthony's Coal Fired Pizza Restaurant".

December 7th, 2022

An incredible holiday luncheon at "The Great House of Quayside", featuring a 4-course luncheon prepared by the infamous Chef Allan. For your enjoyment we will have entertainment and vendors will be there for holiday purchases.

January 2023

We are planning to bring back our notorious Card Party. Date and Place TBA.

February 2023

A special surprise TBA

March 2023

We will be celebrating Champion of The Arts and are pleased to announce that this year's Honoree is "Susan Danis" Executive Director of the "Florida Grand Opera. "

We hope you enjoyed this glimpse into this year's projections for CIA, and we hope you will both join us and get involved in some of these upcoming events.

I look forward to seeing you at these events and meeting each of you once again at our opening luncheon.

Merridy Kotler

CIA President
